LEADERSHIP

Bob Brown
Founder

Bob has been in the content production industry for 25 years. He's run agency production, started an international sports network, and spent 13 years overseeing production and operations at Madison Square Garden Networks.

Ryan Moloney
Head of Postproduction

Ryan has spent close to a decade overseeing postproduction departments, specializing in commercial and digital ad work, with clients ranging from the safe to the adventurous. He's also an excellent editor by trade.

Rob Cooper
Executive In Charge

'Coop' oversees all of our production management. He has led production operations at various agencies, at sports networks, and large scale studios.

WHAT WE OFFER

IN-STUDIO SHOOTS

Photography, product shots, micro-videos, long form, live streaming, interviews, etc.

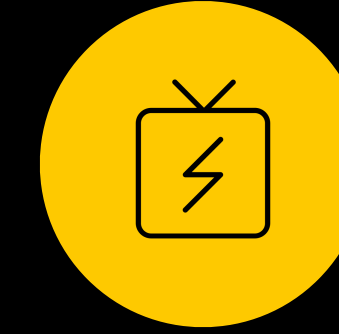

ON LOCATION PRODUCTION

A roster of on-site resources across the U.S. and expertise in filming social media up to broadcast level content.

REAL-TIME EVENT COVERAGE

Capturing and editing footage in real time at events and activations, translating in-person experiences into social media.

LIVE-STREAMING

Owning all components from casting, locations, studio design, and live transmitting, remote and on-location.

POST-PRODUCTION EDITING & FINISHING

In-house editing suites coast to coast, with professional color and sound mix finishing capabilities.

NO HUDDLE

Innovative 'white-label' production service to athletes and their agencies. QB1 produces content in the background and the athlete and agency are the production company in name.
